

A new way for small business owners
to provide health insurance

Washington Healthplanfinder Business is a customer-friendly, online marketplace that allows employers to compare plans, decide their contribution level and manage payment, all in one place.
Eligible small business owners can also access tax credits when they enroll through Washington Healthplanfinder Business.

Why should my company use Washington Healthplanfinder Business?

- Small business owners can choose the range of coverage they want to offer their employees, and employees have the freedom to compare plans side by side and choose the health plan and level of coverage that fits their needs.
- Washington Healthplanfinder Business makes company health care costs predictable each month.
- Washington Healthplanfinder Business saves small business owners time and hassle by allowing them to make a single monthly payment rather than payments to multiple health insurance carriers.
- Small businesses may be eligible for tax credits if they decide to enroll in health coverage through Washington Healthplanfinder Business.
- The Washington Healthplanfinder Business website allows small business owners to view and select health insurance options for their company and check on the status of payments whenever it's convenient for them.
